CONFIDENTIALITY: Generally speaking, the information provided by and to the client in the context of the therapy session is legally confidential and cannot be released to a third party without your written consent.

There are exceptions to this confidentiality when disclosure is required by law, which are: when there is reasonable suspicion of child or elder abuse or neglect; as well as when there are certain issues related to suicide and homicide. If a legal exception arises during therapy, if feasible, you will be informed accordingly.

EMERGENCIES: In an emergency you may try to reach me; however, as a sole practitioner, I do not offer 24-hour crisis intervention or after hours availability. In the event of an emergency, please make every effort to remain safe including calling 911 or going to the nearest emergency room.

If you need to talk to someone right away, please call:

Crisis Link (suicide and crisis hotline) for the Washington Metropolitan: 202-527-4077

Access Help Line (24/7 DC Mental Health including mobile psychiatric response units) 1-888-793-4357.

CONSULTATION: To provide the highest level of care, I consult regularly with other mental health professionals regarding my clients; however, at all times, the confidentiality of the client is respected and safeguarded.

FEES: As an out-of-network provider, clients are expected to pay the standard fee of $165 per 60 minute session or $245 per 90 minute session. A $5 discount is given if payment is made by check or cash. Clients acknowledge that the Therapist does not accept insurance or complete claim forms. If the Therapist is subpoenaed or otherwise required to be involved with the courts on behalf of the client, the rate is $350 per hour, plus travel time, preparation time and out of pocket expenses. If your account is overdue (unpaid) and there is not written agreement or a payment plan, I may use legal or other means (courts, collection agencies, etc.) to obtain payment.

LITIGATION: If the client is involved in a divorce or custody litigation, please know that my role is that of a therapist and is not to make recommendations for the court concerning custody or parenting issues or to testify in court concerning opinions on issues involved in litigation.
